

Easy to read

Client Success Story: John Building Better Opportunities

- John referred himself to Enable's Building Better Opportunities (BBO) Project.
- John wanted to return to work after a gap of four years due to a serious health condition.
- BBO helped to fund John's CPCs certificate which meant he could start job searching.
- Eventually he found the right job to match his skills and experience.
- He secured a job at an engineering company.
- His employer is impressed with his determination, drive and attitude and understands his disability.
- Gina, John's Employment Officer, was happy to have supported him to find a job and employer that was right for him.